

3D Crystal Angel Tatting Retreat Fri-Sun, October 24-26, 2008

Harrisburg Holiday Inn, New Cumberland
(148 Sheraton Drive, near intersection of I-83, Exit 40A
& PA Turnpike, Exit 242)

Mark the "Tat Man" Myers (www.tat-man.net) will be joining us on October 24-26 at the Holiday Inn, New Cumberland.

The project will be a Crystal Angel which features pearl chain with rings thrown off both sides and tatted over wire. Beads are incorporated into the design. Mark says, "my projects are packed with techniques and do require some time to get through half or most of the motif before the end of the workshop time so the tatter can go home with something to show." He is willing to work with beginners (must have basic tatting skills!) through advanced.

Supplies:

- 1) Thread in size 30 (or equivalent...has to be this size for pattern to work out correctly) Sample done in DMC Cebelia cotton size 30.
- 2) Thread color of choice
- 3) scissors
- 4) picot gauge (if desired)
- 5) wire cutters/crimpers
- 6) several shuttles preloaded CTM
- 7) paper clips, clothes pin, other gadgets to make tatting easier

COST: $140, includes 14 hours of instruction (Fri 7-9; Sat 8:30-11:30, 1-5; Sun 9-12, 1-3); Yummy Afternoon Refreshment Break on Saturday; special class memento

► Lunch/Supper on-your-own (you can pack a lunch, go to Elephant & Castle, or within walking distance, go to Eat n' Park, Pizza Hut, Bob Evans and Mc Donald's)

MATERIALS FEE: $7, includes the pearl drop bead, Swarovski crystal beads, sufficient amount of wire, two 25mm wooden beads. NOTE: The tatter can bring their own supplies instead of getting the kit. Just need to be sure they are using size 30 (equivalent) thread, 2 - 25mm wooden beads in a blonde color, one 12 x 32mm pearl drop crystal bead, 3 Swarovski crystal beads (or any other type), and 24/26 gauge wire.
